*God's Word is the treasure that makes everything holy ...
At whatever time God's Word is taught, preached, heard, read, or pondered, there the person, the day and the work is hallowed, not on account of the external work but on account of the Word that makes us all saints. -From Martin Luther's Large Catechism.*

This church year celebrates the 500 Year Anniversary of the Reformation. What a great time to celebrate Luther's goal of all Christians being able to hear, read, learn and understand the Bible. At Good Shepherd we use the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL). A Lectionary is an assigned schedule of readings/passages from The Bible that are used both in daily worship and Sabbath worship in many Christian Churches. The RCL is a three-year cycle of passages that assigns for each Sunday and Christian holiday readings from The Old Testament, The Psalms, The Epistles or other writings, and one of the four Gospels. Take some time to explore the Psalms. The Lutheran Study Bible talks about fact that the Psalms "explore the highs and lows of the life of faith.. and teach all of us about the long journey of faith." Please let the office know if you need a Study Bible. This publication is also on our website.

How to use this Daily Lectionary & Psalms:

- Use the weekday readings to prepare for and reflect on the Sunday readings. Review the Lutheran Study Bible commentary for insights and questions to consider.
- In addition to being a guide for individual study and prayer, consider using these readings with your family, prayer with someone who is sick or in distress and for church group devotions.

In this coming year with its focus on the Gospel of Matthew, I hope you will commit to being an active part of the "kingdom of heaven" by delving deeper into the richness of what Scripture might be saying to us today. Be open to God's promise of the Word's transforming power in our lives!

Blessings, Pastor Dave Mesner

Notes: Psalms for Daily Prayer

"Psalms for Daily Prayer" is taken from Benedictine Daily Prayer and is based upon The Rule of Saint Benedict.

Choose one or all of the Psalms listed in each category.

These Psalms are accompanied by a reading from the Daily Lectionary and may be used with the liturgies of Morning Prayer, Evening "finishing" the assigned Psalms in a given time Prayer and Night Prayer in Evangelical Lutheran Worship. The Daily Lectionary reading will also include Psalms 1-31, simply assigned by day of the month. Don't worry about period. The purpose of this list is to be transformed by an immersion in the Psalms over an extended time.

Morning Prayer

- The Psalms are listed in a two week cycle.
- For each week, the Psalms on the 1st line are designated for Vigils (just prior to sunrise), and the 2nd line for Lauds (after sunrise). You may use all of them in a single time of Morning Prayer, or as many as you would like.
- The Gospel Cantic for Morning Prayer is the Benedictus (Luke 1:68-79).

Daytime Prayer

- Traditional times for Daytime Prayer are 9 am, 12 pm, and 3 pm.
- Depending on your schedule and your preference, you may pray the designated Psalms at each of these hours or at one time of Daytime Prayer.
- Note that Daytime Prayer for Sunday and Monday focuses on Psalm 119, while Tuesday through Saturday feature the Psalms of Ascent.

Evening Prayer

- Evening Prayer (Vespers) repeats the same Psalms for each day of the week on a one week cycle.
- The Gospel Cantic for Evening Prayer is the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55).

Night Prayer

- The same Psalms (4,91,134) are prayed each night at Night Prayer.
- The Gospel Cantic for Night Prayer is the Nunc Dimittis (Luke 2:29-32).
