Why am I receiving this booklet?

We publish the booklet of Daily Lectionary & Psalms separate from the newsletter so that you may keep it with your Bible and other devotionals as you seek the Word of God. It is no longer published monthly in the newsletter, but weekly readings will still be printed in your Sunday Worship Bulletins.

We hope you enjoy this annual format. If you need additional copies, they are available in the church office.

God's peace to you!

Notes: Psalms for Daily Prayer

"Psalms for Daily Prayer" is taken from Benedictine Daily Prayer and is based upon The Rule of Saint Benedict.

Choose one or all of the Psalms listed in each category.

These Psalms are accompanied by a reading from the Daily Lectionary and may be used with the liturgies of Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer and Night Prayer in Evangelical Lutheran Worship. The Daily Lectionary reading will also include Psalms 1-31, simply assigned by day of the month.

Don't worry about "finishing" the assigned Psalms in a given time period.

The purpose of this list is to be transformed by an immersion in the Psalms over an extended time.

Morning Prayer

- The Psalms are listed in a two week cycle.
- For each week, the Psalms on the 1st line are designated for Vigils (just prior to sunrise), and the 2nd line for Lauds (after sunrise). You may use all of them in a single time of Morning Prayer, or as many as you would like.
- The Gospel Canticle for Morning Prayer is the Benedictus (Luke 1:68-79).

Daytime Prayer

- Traditional times for Daytime Prayer are 9 am, 12 pm, and 3 pm.
- Depending on your schedule and your preference, you may pray the designated Psalms at each of these hours or at one time of Daytime Prayer.
- Note that Daytime Prayer for Sunday and Monday focuses on Psalm 119, while Tuesday through Saturday feature the Psalms of Ascent.

Evening Prayer

- Evening Prayer (Vespers) repeats the same Psalms for each day of the week on a one week cycle.
- The Gospel Canticle for Evening Prayer is the Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55).

Night Prayer

- The same Psalms (4,91,134) are prayed each night at Night Prayer.
- The Gospel Canticle for Night Prayer is the Nunc Dimittis (Luke 2:29-32).

Psalms for Daily Prayer

"... their delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law they meditate day and night." Psalm 1:2
